

CODE OF ETHICS FOR THE COUNTY OF ORLEANS INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AGENCY

Statement of Purpose:

The Code of Ethics is a public statement by the Agency that sets clear expectations and principles to guide practice and inspire professional excellence. The County of Orleans Industrial Development Agency (“Agency”) believes a commonly held set of principles can assist in the individual exercise of professional judgment.

This Code speaks to the core values of public accountability and transparency. The purpose of having a code of ethics and practices is to protect the credibility of the Agency by ensuring high standards of honesty, integrity, and conduct of staff. To that end, this Code of Ethics attempts to accomplish this or her by articulating the ethical standards observed by the Agency in pursuing and implementing economic development initiatives, and setting rules and policies that prevent conflicts of interest.

Rule with respect to conflicts of interest:

The officers, members of the board and employees of the Agency are subject to the conflict of interest provisions of Article 18 of the New York General Municipal Law, as reflected in the Agency's Conflict of Interest Policy. In addition to the restrictions contained in Article 18 of the New York General Municipal Law, and to the extent not inconsistent therewith, the officers, members and employees of the Agency shall be subject to the following standards:

- a. No officer, member of the board or employee should accept other employment which will impair his or her independence of judgment in the exercise of his or her or her official duties.
- b. No officer, member of the board or employee should accept employment or engage in any business or professional activity which will require him or her to disclose confidential information which he or she has gained by reason of his or her official position or authority.
- c. No officer, member of the board or employee should disclose confidential information acquired by him or her in the course of his or her official duties nor use such information to further his or her personal interests.
- d. No officer, member of the board or employee should use or attempt to use his or her official position to secure unwarranted privileges or exemptions for himself, herself or others.

e. No officer, member of the board or employee should engage in any transaction as representative or agent of the Agency with any business entity in which he or she has a direct or indirect financial interest that might reasonably tend to conflict with the proper discharge of his or her official duties.

f. An officer, member of the board or employee should not by his or her conduct give reasonable basis for the impression that any person can improperly influence him or her, unduly enjoy his or her favor in the performance of his or her official duties, or that he or she is affected by the kinship, rank, position or influence of any party or person.

g. An officer or employee should abstain from making personal investments in enterprises which he or she has reason to believe may be directly involved in decisions to be made by him or her, or which will otherwise create substantial conflict between his or her duty in the public interest and his or her private interest.

h. An officer, member of the board or employee should endeavor to pursue a course of conduct which will not raise suspicion among the public that he or she is likely to be engaged in acts that are in violation of his or her trust.

i. No officer or employee employed on a full-time basis nor any firm or association of which such an officer or employee is a member nor corporation a substantial portion of the stock of which is owned or controlled directly or indirectly by such officer, member of the board or employee, should sell goods or services to any person, firm, corporation or association which receive financial assistance from the Agency.

j. No officer, member of the board or employee of shall accept or arrange for any loan or extension of credit from the Agency or any affiliate of the Agency.

Violations:

In addition to any penalty contained in any other provision of law any such officer, member of the board or employee who shall knowingly and intentionally violate any of the provisions of this Code of Ethics may be fined, suspended or removed from office or employment in the manner provided by law.
